THE HEART

Thoughts from Hobo-E... the lead beggar

Why do I do this thing we call Beggarman Ministries?

Three reasons:

I need it.

Others need it — and it only takes one.

As best I can tell, it's what I was created to do.

1 — I need it.

I need community and to remember what's true when the emotional waves of being human hit. I need support to keep making good choices, wisdom from others, encouragement when I'm sad, prayer when I'm nervous, and a helping hand when I'm weary. I need a warm bed, and people to confess to when I'm hurting or lost.

None of us walk alone. I wouldn't be here without the people God used to help me when I was broken and barely surviving. Others hoped for me when I couldn't hope, loved me when I couldn't love myself, and spoke light when I only heard despair. And I still need community — we all do.

2 — Others need it, and it only takes one.

Many people are stuck in sorrow, addiction, incarceration, financial impossibilities, or the long shadows of bad choices. They need a safe place to be honest, held accountable, to learn new rhythms, find work, or simply believe a new life is possible. And often, it only takes one open door. One innkeeper. One boy with loaves and fish. One woman named Rahab. One conversation between Jesus and a blind beggar. Over and over, a single act of compassion changes a life forever. If I am to live out my faith, I want to be that one — and to empower a whole community to join me in bearing one another's burdens, speaking hope and restoration into hurting lives.

3 — As best I can tell, this is what I'm created to do.

In 1997, on a retreat with Brennan Manning, he gave us a quote that has stayed with me: "The place God calls you is where your greatest passion and the world's greatest need intersect." I see that intersection clearly in Beggarman Ministries.

My passion is creating safe places and connections of love — for residents, volunteers, staff, and all who partner with us. One of my greatest joys is watching a wounded friend receive the gift of hope & value. In a world full of need, this seems to be exactly where God has placed me.

Thank you — truly — to each of you who partner with us. I may be the "lead beggar," but I cannot do this alone. Your gifts keep this ministry touching and transforming lives.

What do I want?

To leave a legacy of offering value to those who've been told they're too far gone. To break the "rules" of what is supposed to be and open doors of hope. To be known for saying "yes" when others say "not now." To err on the side of compassion and build a community where people feel safe, listened to, and never alone.

So I use my gifts to help create a place of radical love, authentic friendship, deep value, laughter, faith, music, and sometimes ridiculous fun.

Please keep us in your prayers — we need it.

...with eyes ever on the original Homeless Beggarman who walks with us each step,
Hobo-E

PURPOSE & VISION

The Core Purpose and Vision of Beggarman Ministries is:

- To create a safe place to get back up for men coming out of incarceration, addiction, homelessness, and other difficult life circumstances.
- To create a place where each person feels and knows they are valuable and have hope no matter how dark the journey of life.
- To live in the community where we are located with respect, courtesy and safety.
- To show up and live out the relentless mercy of Jesus to all those He brings into our ministry, remembering that we are all just beggars showing other beggars where we have found bread.

CORE VALUES

The Core Values of Beggarman Ministries are:

Honesty & Communication - Honesty and open communication are essential to building trust and supporting lasting change. We commit to truthfulness, respectful dialogue, and transparency, creating a safe and supportive environment for recovery and renewal.

Growth & Direction - Knowing our direction in life helps us to know what steps to take and how we need to grow to reach our full potential. Just doing the RIGHT NEXT THING is how we move forward. One day at a time. Through clear expectations and purposeful support, we help residents move forward toward stability, independence, and hope.

Value & Respect - We believe every person is created with inherent value and deserving of respect. By affirming each individual's worth and treating others with dignity, we cultivate a culture of hope, healing and unity.

Living Your Gratitude - Rather than just saying "thank you", we express our gratitude by being present and actively participating in the activities and responsibilities of living in community. We are better able to create a safe place and a healthy community when each person is willing to show up, help others and participate. Through consistent engagement and service, we honor the blessings we've received and help build a supportive and hope-filled environment for all.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Chris Tillison
President

I believe that we are all called, by Jesus, to love one another and to show others their true value and worth. Beggarman Ministries follows this vision by welcoming each of our residents as a beautiful, beloved child of God. I am passionate about Beggarman's vision to help others and share the extraordinary grace and love of Christ.

~CHRIS TILLISON

Madi Laughlin
Vice President

I joined Beggarman ministries because I'd seen the love of the Hauck's at work for years in housing, mentoring, and uplifting men in recovery. When they called in the team of board members, it was the right time for them to have a team, and for the ministry to expand in ways that would allow God to show up in many miraculous ways through their community. I continue to be part of this ministry because I believe in redemption, as Christ taught.

~MADI LAUGHLIN

Julie Jennings
Recording Secretary

Originally I accepted an interim secretary position to meet an immediate need and enjoyed it so much I accepted the remainder of the term. Beggarman Ministries provides me a great place to help others in an environment where I could serve different ways and reminds me that we are all broken and should support each other wherever we can, whenever we can!

~JULIE JENNINGS

Laurie Blaha
Treasurer

I joined the board because I saw that Eric had a vision to serve a population who needs our love. I can't do what Eric does, but I can help Eric do what Eric does! I'm honored to play a small part.

~LAURIE BLAHA

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Jeff Johnson
Board Member

I joined the board of Beggarman Ministries because I believe in the life-changing impact of safe, supportive sober housing, and I want to contribute to that mission. With my background as a nonprofit auditor, I understand how strong governance and financial transparency help organizations truly serve their communities. As a passionate member of the board, I can use my skills to support responsible stewardship and help ensure the organization continues to provide meaningful pathways to recovery.

~JEFF JOHNSON

Shane Dart
Board Member

Most of my life was a struggle and without a significant group of prayer warriors who loved and cared for me, death or prison were in my future. I joined Beggarman's board and help on their workdays to try and give back in a positive way and help these men find true life.

~SHANE DART

Jim Ralston
Board Member

Beggarman ministries is a place where my life experiences and resources are aligned with my desire to help those who want to help themselves out of a bad situation.

~JIM RALSTON

James Stephenson
Board Member

What began as a few service opportunities with Beggarman Ministries quickly grew into a community of fellowship and genuine friendships. I'm passionate about recovery, strengthening my faith, and helping others find purpose through recovery, life's transitions, and their walk with Jesus. The relationship felt organically symbiotic, and when the invitation to join the board came, my response was pretty simple: "Why the heck not!"

~JAMES STEPHENSON

BOARD OF DIRECTORS & STAFF

Steve Thiesen
Board Member

Eric Hauck is my hero. He taught me everything I know. He also gave me my first rubber ducky that I still use in the bath tub every night. I love pink flamingos and hope everyone reading this puts at least 10 in my front yard. Next time I am asked for a quote for the annual review, I won't miss the deadline. I love ring pops, lots of hugs, and wearing giant clown feet while I watch Bluey Cartoons.
~STEVE THIESEN

2025 HIGHLIGHTS

A year of Firsts for Beggarman Ministries!!!

As we celebrate the many “FIRSTS” of 2025, the scripture from Isaiah 43:19 rings true for us...“see, I am doing a NEW thing! Now it springs up, do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland”.

Looking back, it is incredible to see the many many beautiful ways that God brought people to help. We can NOT do this alone, and each person, gift, volunteer, and unexpected blessing has confirmed that this ministry is worth it! Not only have we seen God provide new miracles in this non-profit, but He has also “made a way in the wilderness” in each of the lives of the men He has brought into our home.

WHAT'S NEXT

2026 Beggarman Ministries Vision & Goals

1 – Build a Sustainable & Scalable Organizational Structure

To grow well and steward our time, resources, and opportunities with excellence, we plan to expand the team with roles that complement Eric's gifts and support long-term impact:

Increase administrative support for Beggarman's infrastructure

Expand grant-writing capacity

Hire a Development Coordinator (events, online presence, community engagement)

2 – Complete Key Property Renovations & Projects

Finish and open Auntie's House (ask us for remaining project needs!)

Build Auntie's Shed and Garage

Renovate Grandma's House garage into a meeting space and workout area

3 – Pursue New Beggarman Houses

Begin exploring a possible women's home and/or a third men's home

Open a "next step" graduate house for men who want continued community but cannot yet secure a lease

4 – Strengthen Local Church Partnerships

Build ongoing relationships with at least five additional churches this year

5 – Establish a Sustainable Annual Rhythm of Events

Spring Birthday Celebration – May 13

Fireworks Tent – June 27–July 5

Men's Campout Retreat – mid-September

Fall Fun Run & Car Smash – mid-October (following GAD Parade)

Thanksgiving Ridiculous Inflatable Run 4 Fun

Annual Donor Appreciation Dinner

Other ongoing events: Wichita's Got Talent, Applebee's Music Nights, R4R, and more

6 – Improve Donor Management & Communication

Develop a consistent system for communication, gratitude, and ongoing relationship-building

7 – Beyond 2026: Explore Income-Generating Options.

To support Beggarman's sustainability and provide employment for residents, we will begin exploring a few possibilities (not definite, but options): Car detailing, Lawn care business, Local thrift shop, etc.

Bottom line: We deeply believe in this model of transitional sober living, and we are prayerfully discerning how to expand in healthy, sustainable ways so more people can find safe places to heal and rebuild their lives. Thank you for joining us in prayer, partnership, and support in the year to come!
